Lesson 8 (Part One): Active Leadership Mission (Week Two) Every Thought Captive

Thoughts are difficult to manage. Nevertheless, just like we learn to control our bodies at a young age, we can also learn to control our minds. In addition to making the decision to have pure thoughts, pray for help from the Holy Spirit. Read the Bible. Make index cards with Bible verses that you can carry in a pocket, book, or bag. When you are struggling, pull out those cards and read the Scripture verses. Filling your mind with God's meaningful promises or verses will be helpful.

For the next seven days, offer your thoughts to Jesus. Each time you have a wrong desire or idea, make a decision to "think about good things." Pray, "I think this for you, Jesus." Write in the daily log below how you were able to discipline your mind each day and take every thought obedient to Christ. Share joys and struggles of taming your mind.
