13. Have you ever thought how your actions may affect God? Yes No (Circle One)

Personal Answer.

14. How do you love God back?

Personal Answer. But here are answers from this lesson:

There are many ways to love God. One way of loving God is particularly important. We need to obey Him. Both the Old Testament (Exodus 19:15; Deuteronomy 11:1; Jeremiah 7:23) and the New Testament (John 14:15, 14:23, 15:14; 1 Peter 1:2) makes this clear.

Another way to love God is to love our neighbor. A neighbor is anyone in need. We love God by helping the hungry, stranger, poor, sick, imprisoned, hurt, injured, weak, orphan, widow, blind, lame, needy, grieving, and foreigner (Matthew 25:35-45; Luke 10:25-37; Acts 20:35; James 1:27; Job 29:11-17; Psalm 10:14, 146:9; Isaiah 58:7-8). A challenging way to love God is by loving and helping our enemy (Matthew 5:43-48).

Personal Application: Prayerfully consider three ways to express your love to our triune God. Practice each one over the next three days and write about it.

15. List each way you are practicing to love God and write about the experience:

Questions 1-3: Personal Answer for all three. Comment appropriately.

16. It would be a worthy life goal to explore and practice loving God. Will you make this a life goal (aim, purpose)? Yes No Maybe (Circle One)

Personal Answer.

Read Hosea 11:1-2 and answer questions 17-21:

"When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.² But the more they were called, the more they went away from me. They sacrificed to the Baals and they burned incense to images.³ It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them.⁴ I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love. To them I was like one who lifts a little child to the cheek, and I bent down to feed them."

Hosea 11:1-4 (Ephraim is another name for Israel, the northern kingdom.)

17. How does God refer to the people of Israel (v. 1)?

A son or sons.

18. How did God feel about the people of Israel (v. 1)?

God loved them.

Sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed.

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing." Matthew 23:37 (Prophet is a person who speaks for God.)

Note: Jerusalem was city where God' temple was located. It was the center of Jewish worship. In this context, Jerusalem is used figuratively to include the Jewish people (formerly called the Israelites) and their religious leaders.

23. How are Jesus' words to the people similar (alike) to God the Father's words to the people in Hosea 11:1-4?

Calling and longing for a loving relationship with the people but they were not willing. The people do evil and turn away from God.

From the lesson: God the Son, like the Father, expressed His love for the people and His sadness over their sin. God wants a loving relationship with us, but many are unwilling to accept it. We would rather go our own way. Which is the wrong way and the way to destruction.
